

THE DEMOCRAT

W. J. ROUSE, Editor.
R. F. HIXSON, City Editor.

TERMS $1.00 PER YEAR

Published at the postoffice at Hannibal, Mo., as second-class matter.

TELEPHONES:

Office: Buffum - 14
F. & M. - 90
Residence: Buffum - 158
F. & M. - 158

THURSDAY, NOV. 2, 1905.

FOR SALE—A G. & C. Cock Bay-Jumper. Inquire at this office.

Florida.

Rev. T. M. Strubbing of Perry, preached here Sunday.

Miss Pearl Freeman visited at Paris Saturday.

Mrs. Bettie Adkinson of Perry, visited her cousin, Mrs. Brown, a part of last week.

A pretty little girl made her appearance at the home of Charley Smith Sunday.

Mrs. John Hudson and her son-in-law, Willie Blue, of this place, left Saturday for Sando, Cal. Mr. Hudson will remain for a while.

Mrs. Albert Jones, formerly Sallie Pollard, and little son, Braxton Pollard, of Chillicothe, who are here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Braxton Pollard, are spending the week with her friend, Mrs. Emma Stewart, near Strother.

Adam Graves of Monroe City, bought cattle last week of John Hurd, Russ Crigler and Mr. Hugh.

John Jones is very low with typhoid fever at the home of his father, north of town.

Mrs. Minnie Crabtree sold her farm of 110 acres, east of here, to Fes. Matthews last week. Consideration $2,450.

W. L. Crigler and wife have moved from the farm to her property here.

Several young people from here attended the box supper at Victor Saturday night.

Mrs. Dizzie McCreery and her sister, Mrs. Lina Campbell, are visiting relatives at Perry.

The farmers in gathering their crop of corn discover it to be damaged some. The corn that was blown down is damaged, also corn in the river bottom that was overflowed is damaged considerably.

Eddy-Moss.

Bernice D. Moss of St. Louis, formerly of this city, and Miss Martha Eddy of Hannibal, were married at the Fifth Street Baptist church at 8:30 p. m. Monday. The happy pair spent Tuesday in this city with his cousin, Mrs. D. A. Ely and family.

Dan, K. Yowell of Galesburg, Ill., has cleaned up all his interests over there and is preparing to return to Monroe City, the Queen of the Prairies, the best agricultural country that can be found this side of Kingdom Come. While we don't like to compare Dan with cat, well, he is comin' back.

1000 dozen of napkins sacrificed this week and next at Kespohl-Mohrenstecher's. $1.00 quality extra heavy Queen's household at 69c per dozen; $1.50 quality beautiful Mercerized at 97c per dozen; $3.00 pure linen bleached and silver-bleached at $1.95 per dozen.

Don't forget about the ball at the opera house Tuesday night.

Kespohl-Mohrenstecher's have just secured at a great bargain 100 pieces stylish silks and announce for this week and next: 69c quality Changeable Taffetas, Camille spots, etc., at 50c per yard; $1.00 quality fancy Moire Velour at 69c per yard. It will pay you to go to Quincy.

Jack Rouse, John Campbell, M. L. Kline and J. W. Mounce were business visitors in New London this week.

E. S. Boulware was a business visitor in Hannibal, Monday.

Miss Lucy Gentry is now one of the attentive clerks at Rogers & Thompson's.

Mrs. Nora Black and children after a protracted visit in this city, went to Hannibal yesterday for a few days and will then go to her home.

Miss Lula Dickison, of Shelbyville, came down Tuesday to visit her friend, Miss May Jackson.

Mrs. J. K. Couray and daughter, Elizabeth, have been the guests of Mrs. Couray's parents, Richard Brennenman and wife.

Miss Bessie Overly, now one of the attentive, as well as attractive, hello girls at the Buffum central office, succeeds Miss Frankie Hawkins, who has gone to Hannibal for the winter.

Is There?

Is there any special reason why the electric light plant should not furnish business houses these dark days with lights by 4:30 p. m., or even earlier, when the weather is unusually gloomy.

Mrs. O. R. Emerson and Master Bert were Bluff City visitors Thursday.

William Jarboe, of O'Fallon, has been visiting friends in the city.

Remember that Kespohl-Mohrenstecher's sensational sale of 2000 ladies ready-made suits and 2000 ladies and children's cloaks continues another fortnight. Railroad fare refunded right at Kespohl-Mohrenstecher's own office.

Piano Selling.

Pianos will be sold for less than wholesale prices. Sale begins Nov. 4.—(Hamilton & Herndon stand.)

The Giles Bros. have taken charge of the Hamilton & Herndon stock pianos and will offer many fine pianos at less than wholesale—$50 to $100 saved to the purchaser.

This is a rare chance to get a good piano at your own price.

Some small goods—Violins, Guitars and Mandolins will be sold at less than cost.

The sale lasts only 5 days—Sale begins Saturday. Remember the place Monroe City, Mo. GILES BROS., Prop's. Hal R. Ewalt, Manager.

Body.

Mrs. Maud Body, of Keota, died Wednesday and was buried Thursday. She went down into the mysterious land of motherhood, and the babe came back alone.

Mrs. Body was a sister of Mrs. W. G. Caldwell, of this city, who was with the deceased at the time of her passing away.

Mrs. George Pickering, of Richmond, Mo., has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Blackstone.

Fiftieth Anniversary of St. Jude's Church

St. Jude's Church was organized on St. Simon's and St. Jude's Day, Oct. 28, 1855. To celebrate its fiftieth anniversary elaborate preparations were made which were carried out without a break. A week of services was arranged for beginning Monday Oct. 23 and ending Sunday Oct. 29, which were of such interest that the church was filled each night. The following are the names of the preachers and their subjects: the Rev. John Davis, D. D. of Palmyra, "Death Unto Sin"; the Rev. E. P. Little, Hannibal, "The Claims of the Church on the American People"; the Rev. Robert Talbot, Kansas City, "Spiritual Vision"; the Rt. Rev. Fawcett, D. D. Bishop of Quincy, "Why Churchmen Love the Church"; the Rev. B. E. Diggs, Galesburg, Ill., "The Church the Pillar and Ground of the Truth"; the Rev. W. A. Hatch, St. Louis, "Personal Holiness." It was a great pleasure to the people of St. Jude's Church to see and have three of their former rectors, the Rev. Messrs. Talbot, Hatch and Diggs. St. Jude's was Mr. Talbot's first church after his ordination. It has been 22 years since he was here, but many remembered him with affection. Mr. Hatch was rector for sixteen years and is always welcomed by a host of friends. And Mr. Diggs has been gone but a few months and left many friends and a good work done. A reception was held Saturday evening at the residence of Aaron Boulware in honor of the Rt. Rev. D. S. Tuttle, L. L. D. Bishop Missouri and Presiding Bishop of the Church in the United States. A large number of the members of St. Jude's was present to pay their respects to the their honored Bishop, and a very pleasant time was had by all. Letters from former rectors who were not able to attend the celebration were read from the Rev. Mr. Ward now in Florida, the Rev. H. W. Starr, of Council Bluffs, Iowa, and the Rev. Mr. Evans now in Montana, the Rev. Walter Mitchell, a missionary in San Juan, Puerto Rico. They all spoke highly of deep affection for the people of St. Jude and great regret at not being to able to be present.

The anniversary sermon was preached Sunday morning by Bishop Tuttle, who took for his subject the twin elements of successful Christian work and living, Praying and Fighting as exemplified by Moses upon the mount and Joshua in the valley in conflict with the Amalek. It was a grand and inspiring sermon. Before the sermon a historical sketch of the Parish written by Mrs. J. H. McQuinn was read by B. O. Wood, Junior Warden. The Bishop celebrated the Holy Communion assisted in the service by the Rev. W. A. Hatch and the Rector, Rev. H. G. Limric. The offering together with other pledges previously made will be used in building a recess chancel in loving remembrance of the Rev. F. B. Scheetz founder of the Parish, although not then in Holy Orders. Coming to Missouri in 1852 he settled near Sharpsburg. There was no Episcopal Church within many miles, and so it was his custom to read the services of church to the members of his family and others whom he invited. From the little beginning a congregation was gradually gotten together, a church a church was organized in 1855, and a small building erected

Have you seen Madame?

GET THE BEST

GRAND PRIZE
Highest Award
WORLD'S FAIR
ST. LOUIS

WEBSTER'S INTERNATIONAL DICTIONARY

Recently Enlarged
WITH 25,000 New Words
New Gazetteer of the World with more than 25,000 titles, based on the latest census returns.

New Biographical Dictionary
containing the names of over 10,000 noted persons, date of birth, death, etc.

Edited by W. T. HARRIS, Ph.D., LL.D.,
United States Commissioner of Education.

2380 Quarto Pages
New Plates, 6000 Illustrations, Rich Bindings.

Needed in Every Home

Also Webster's Collegiate Dictionary
1100 Pages, 1100 Illustrations.
Regular Edition 7x10x1 1/2 inches, 3 bindings.
De Luxe Edition 8x10x1 1/2 in. Printed from new plates, on bible paper, 2 beautiful bindings.

FREE, "Dictionary Writings," Illustrated pamphlet.

G. & C. MERRIAM CO.,
Publishers, Springfield, Mass.

which was given up when it was decided to move the church to the then village of Monroe in 1867. St. Jude's stone church, thus was the first house of worship erected in Monroe. There has been no phenomenal growth in the life of the Parish but a steady and healthy improvement. Many once identified with the church have removed to other places and many have gone to their eternal reward. Bishop Tuttle calls St. Jude's the ideal rural Parish.

List of Letters.

Remaining unclaimed in post office, Monroe City, Mo., on Oct. 31, 1905

G. H. Chapman
Amanda Gorrell
Mr. C. M. Johnson
T. I. Johnson
J. Kreip
Miss Martha Moss
Miss Alice Smith
Wm. Walker
Mollie Wesman
Ora Young.

To obtain any of these letters persons must say advertised.—J. P. PATTON, Postmaster.

Didn't Marry.

It was reported in Palmyra yesterday that Thomas Biers of this city, and Miss Edith Drescher were married. It was an error. Miss Drescher came to this city Tuesday to visit her friend, Mrs. G. G. Hawley.

Miss Bessie Worrell, of Chicago, Miss Maud McCune, of Kansas City, and Miss L. B. Barnett and Cathie Cox, of Hannibal, are the guests of their friend, Mrs. Dora Hallock.

A Boy.

Bud Jones is the proud papa of a brand new boy that weighed 9 pounds, but by the time the telephone rings quivering he weighed 20 pounds. At that rate we suppose he is shucking corn this morning.

There will be something doing all night long at the opera house next Tuesday night—the opening ball of the season with free supper at Christian's restaurant.

Ralph Graham was a Hannibal visitor Tuesday.

Leading College Libraries

The four leading college libraries of the United States occupy buildings costing in the aggregate $3,225,000. Of these Columbia University (N. Y.) has the best, a magnificent structure costing $1,100,000. The others and their cost are as follows: Drexel institute (Philadelphia), $750,000; Princeton University, $725,000; Wisconsin University, $650,000.

Miss Della Mead, of Shelbyville, has been visiting friends in the Queen of the Prairies.

J. W. Berry, of near Hatch, was a Hannibal and New London visitor Thursday and Friday.

Geo. P. Johnston, of Shelbyville, came over Saturday to see the Hannibal High School team and Monroe City High School teams mix up on the gridiron.

We Know

That we are in the Front Line when asking Mr. Farmer for his trade and to that end will send him fresh meats by the carriers on R. F. D's, if he orders or phones to us or sends to us through the carriers. There will be no extra charge to purchaser for delivery of meats. McCLENTIC & DONLEY.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Jones, of Palmyra, have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. H. B. Mudd.

Mrs. H. W. Teed and babe have been visiting Quincy friends.

Thirty-Nine.

Mrs. T. E. Willard sprung a surprise on T. E. Monday night by inviting some of his intimates to supper and it was a good one, to help her make merry over T. E.'s, thirty-ninth birthday.

Before leaving that sumptuous table the guests belts were drawn tight and it was not because they had taken them up a notch. Then the tables were cleared and a good time was had in a game of ministerial euchre, good time because friendship was trumps.

The guests were: J. A. Yates and wife, E. E. Delashmuth and wife, S. A. Miller and wife, Frank Bottorff and wife, J. B. Thomas and wife and D. R. Campbell and wife.

Miss Lula Griggs has been visiting Quincy relatives.

Mrs. C. N. Griggs went to Quincy Tuesday for a visit with relatives.

Prentice-Collins.

One of the prettiest of quiet weddings occurred at 3 p. m., yesterday in Shelbyville, only the immediate families being present.

The contracting parties were Leo Collins, a prosperous and genial young farmer, and the young lady Miss Alice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Prentice, formerly residents of this city, was one of those modest, quiet, refined young ladies. To know her was to admire her, for her sterling qualities were many.

May their bark of life always sail on placid, gladsome waters.